

Life Enriching Communities
Connie Kingsbury
Vice President Marketing & Public Relations
513-719-3513
Connie.Kingsbury@lec.org

Caring Communities
Ashur Odishoo
National Director of Sales & Marketing
847-549-8225
aodishoo@caringcomm.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

LIFE ENRICHING COMMUNITIES JOINS CARING COMMUNITIES

Libertyville, IL: Life Enriching Communities has become a member of Caring Communities, the nation's leading member-owned insurance company providing liability insurance, education, and risk management services exclusively for the nation's leading not-for-profit senior care and housing providers.

"Life Enriching Communities (LEC) is very enthusiastic about our association with Caring Communities," Life Enriching Communities President & CEO Scott McQuinn shared. "We place significant value on Caring Communities' risk management platform which will be integral to our quality assurance and continuous improvement processes. Further, we believe the collaborative culture of Caring Communities will be very beneficial to LEC and look forward to being associated with other high-quality, like-minded organizations from around the country."

"We are thrilled and grateful to welcome Life Enriching Communities to the Caring Communities family as Members," Caring Communities CEO Jim Caldwell shared. "This demonstrates that we continue to attract high-quality organizations that are committed to providing their residents the very best, and who recognize that Caring Communities aligns with and will support their mission, strategy and goals. We will enjoy working with Scott McQuinn, CEO, Jim Bowersox, CFO and everyone associated with Life Enriching Communities."

About Life Enriching Communities

Life Enriching Communities has a rich and storied history dating back to 1899. That year, after recognizing a need to create a community for retired ministers and laity, the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Weakley, a Methodist minister, coordinated the efforts of five Methodist Conferences to establish The Methodist Home for the Aged. Today, Life Enriching Communities is an integrated family of lifestyle communities and senior living services in greater Cincinnati committed to enhancing adult lifestyles through a philosophy of whole person wellness. Best known for their Twin Towers and Twin Lakes senior living communities, they deliver exceptional everyday experiences to everyone they serve. With a focus on quality living options and healthcare services, Life Enriching Communities has become one of the area's leading senior living providers. More information can be found at www.lec.org.

About Caring Communities

A.M. Best Rated A Excellent, Caring Communities, a Reciprocal Risk Retention Group is the leading member-owned provider of professional, general, and excess liability insurance protection, education, and risk management services for the country's preeminent not-for-profit providers of senior care and housing. Membership in Caring Communities represents a long term strategic opportunity for mission based providers to work with the industry's innovators and leaders – to further their mission in creating the safest environments and best risk management practices for their residents and employees. Caring Communities is owned and governed exclusively by its Members.

For more information, please visit www.caringcomm.org